Holy League Against France

After 7 yrs marriage, Jane Holt, wife of Thomas More died.

He married Alice Middleton, a widow.
Thomas More became one of the most influential people in all England.

King Henry VIII sent him as his personal representative to other countries. He also made him a knight, and finally named him Chancellor of England.

But then Henry VIII wanted to divorce

his wife Catherine and Mary Anne Boleyn
the pope said he could not do this.

He then rejected the Pope and named himself as head of Church in England

Thomas More refused to accept King Henry as head of the Church. He resigned as Chancellor.

The King had Thomas arrested & put in the Tower of London. Thomas's family became poor. Finally the king became so angry he had Thomas condemned to death. He had accused him of treason. He was executed.

400 yrs later Pope Pius XI Canonized Thomas
More. June 22 is feast day of St Thomas More

1511

France, having conquered Venice in 1509, was invaded in 1511 by a renewed alliance (of the Pope, Spain, and the Emperor) in a second Italy League and compelled to abandon Italy.

The 1st phase of war ended in 1515 when France defeated Maximilian at Battle of MARIIGNANO, thus gaining possession of Milan and overthrowing

the empire from Italy.
